New data and trends have indicated that golf is best learned in a team or group environment where players can develop social connections and be in a realistic golf atmosphere while having fun. This program is designed to motivate and challenge each other to achieve golf skills through guidance and discovery. This fun and nurturing environment will help players bond creating a cohesive team atmosphere while also enabling players to learn at their own individual pace.

In the group environment players will learn the 3 top skill sets every golfer must learn to perform and enjoy playing golf. Each class will focus entirely on drills and practice to achieve these skills. These are the steps necessary to build and learn a motor skill like golf! The 3 top skill sets include Driving, Putting & Wedges.

These classes are not “lessons” but rather time to develop proper practice habits and learn drills under the watchful eye of your LPGA golf coach and to work on techniques to transfer your skills to the course. Time will be divided with 50% on the practice range and 50% will be spent on the golf course every day with daily fun challenges. Come join the fun and really commit to improve this season!
